Artwork Description

Thought I would create a tribute to my favorite brand of cola, as I have always liked Pepsi's mix of blue and red. Also included in the piece are the brand's various collaborations with Michael Jackson, Star Wars and several others. The strange tie in merchandise like Pepsi man figurines, pencil cases and the several cd compilations they released over the years. As a whole this piece has been made to celebrate Pepsi's legacy, from the strange tie ins and historical sponsorships to the wild alternative flavors and iconic commercials. This piece can make you nostalgic, excited or, want Pepsi!
